About Vibrant Textiles

Vibrant Textiles is a non-profit association committed to the growth, development, and enrichment of India's textile and handloom ecosystem. The organization works as a facilitator, supporter, and bridge between artisans, vendors, MSMEs, industry stakeholders, academic institutions, and government bodies.

Vibrant Textiles focuses on capacity building, skill development, policy support, industry collaboration, and sustainable growth, while preserving India's rich textile heritage. By connecting traditional craftsmanship with modern industry needs, it aims to strengthen the entire textile value chain and position India competitively in domestic and global markets.

Our Mission

- To empower India’s textile sector by supporting vendors, artisans, and industry stakeholders with skills, resources, and guidance.
- To act as a platform for collaboration between government, industry, and grassroots communities for sustainable textile development.
- To promote innovation, ethical practices, and sustainability, while preserving traditional textile knowledge and craftsmanship.
- To contribute towards employment generation, skill enhancement, and long-term sector growth.

Handloom Handicrafts Exporters Welfare Association, HHEWA

The Handloom & Handicrafts Exporters' Welfare Association is a government-recognized organization dedicated to promoting and supporting the interests of small and medium handloom and handicraft exporters across India. With a focus on resolving the day-to-day operational challenges, export-related issues, payment concerns, and policy matters faced by exporters, the association plays a crucial role in fostering the growth and sustainability of this vibrant sector.

As a catalyst for change, the association serves as a platform for exporters to collaborate, share knowledge, and collectively address common issues. By advocating for fair trade practices, ensuring timely payments, and advocating for favorable policies, the association strives to create an enabling environment for exporters. It also actively engages with government agencies, trade bodies, and other stakeholders to influence policy decisions and promote the preservation of India's rich cultural heritage through the handloom and handicrafts sector.
